VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
RECOMBINANT POLIOMYELITIS VACCINE OBTAINS CLINICAL TRIAL APPROVAL IN CHINA

This announcement is made by CanSino Biologics Inc. (the "Company") on a voluntary basis.

The Company is pleased to announce that it has obtained clinical trial approval granted by the National Medical Products Administration of China to initiate relevant clinical trial for the Recombinant Trivalent Poliomyelitis Vaccine (Sf-RVN Cell) (the "Recombinant Poliomyelitis Vaccine"), a vaccine candidate developed by the Company.

Recombinant Poliomyelitis Vaccine of the Company was produced through protein structure design and virus-like particle ("VLP") assembly technology. It contains no viral genetic material, does not rely on live virus during the manufacturing and testing processes, and is expected to exhibit good safety and immunogenicity profiles. Non-infectious polio VLP-based vaccines are recommended by the World Health Organization as one of the preferred vaccines for polio in the future, and are expected to be an ideal post-eradication polio vaccine.

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.
